

Immigration Pricing & Service Information

We offer transparent, fixed-fee immigration services tailored to both individuals and businesses. Our fees reflect the level of expertise, time, and care required to guide you through each stage of your application.

Scope of Services

This pricing applies to standard, non-complex immigration matters, including but not limited to:

- UK visa applications and extensions
- British Citizenship
- Sponsor Licences for UK employers
- EUSS and E-Visa corrections
- Skilled Worker visas
- Partner applications
- Private Life applications
- Asylum

For complex matters (e.g. refusals, appeal proceedings), tailored quotes may apply.

Our Services Include:

- Initial consultation and eligibility review
- Advice on supporting documentation
- Completion and submission of relevant Home Office forms
- Liaison with UKVI/Home Office
- Assistance with biometric enrolment
- Ongoing updates and communication throughout the process
- Decision outcome advice

This will be based on complexity, case type and other factors. When your case is assessed, we will be able to give more accurate timescales, this can be discussed with the person in charge of your case during the initial consultation.

Disbursements (Third-Party Costs):

These are costs paid to third parties and are not included in our fixed fees. They may include:

- Home Office application fees
- Immigration Health Surcharge (IHS) Document translation costs
- UKVCAS biometric enrolment fees
- Postage or courier costs (if required)
- Counsel's fees (e.g. if barristers are instructed for tribunal hearings)

We will always discuss and confirm any disbursements with you before incurring them.

Additional Services:

For complex or appeal-related matters, we also offer:

- Administrative Review Applications
- Appeals and Tribunal Representation
- Pre-licence audits and employer compliance advice
- Urgent / premium processing requests

Fees for these services will be discussed and agreed in advance depending on the complexity and urgency of the matter.
